

Two Years THROUGH THE Bible

A TWO-YEAR DAILY READING GUIDE

Starting your Bible reading mid-year?

For Two Years Through the Bible to make the most sense, start from the beginning of the guide (January, Year 1). By doing so, you'll start reading each book of the Bible at its beginning rather than in the middle of the story. Ignore the listed dates, and just take the guide one day at a time.

Two Years Through the Bible

by Mark Warren © 2007

*Your word, O Lord, is eternal;
it stands firm in the heavens.*

*Your word is a lamp to my feet
and a light to my path.*

PSALM 119:89, 105

The need is greater than ever today for mature Christians to have a overall understanding of the Bible as a whole. If believers can understand the “big picture” from Genesis to Revelation they will be better able to understand the specific passages throughout the Bible.

The best interpreter of Scripture is Scripture itself. A consistent plan of reading through the entire Bible, combined with specific studies and meditations of Bible books, topics and passages will provide a balanced and rich experience in the Scriptures.

I call this a “meat and potatoes” approach to the Word. Eat lots of potatoes by your general chronological reading through the entire Bible, and meditate on the meat of specific Scriptures and areas of focused Bible study.

The purpose of this program is to read through the entire Bible – in chronological order – over a two year period. This guide places both Old and New Testament books in the approximate historical time frame in which they happened relative to each other. You will be reading the Old and the New Testament at the same time so that you will get a little bit of both each day.

It is the Holy Spirit who gives understanding to the Bible, so make it your habit to ask for his illumination each time you open your Bible to read. It is my prayer that the Holy Spirit will richly bless your reading and study of the Word so that you may “transformed by the renewing of your mind.”

A special thanks to all who have given me corrections and suggestions over the years, especially Tom Wadkins from Christ the King Community Church.
